VERSE 1

O Israel, put your trust in the Lord
There may be more, more than you've heard before
All the words we've read
And the things He's said
Could it be our hope's not dead?

CHORUS

Just as He said He would
He has risen now He is alive
Just as He said He would
He'll return with a fire in His eyes
He has broken every chain
Now forever He shall reign
And He's coming again
Just as He said He would

VERSE 2

Open your eyes, see his hands, see His side
Hear how He lived, and for you, how He died
How His way is sure
Through an open door
To a kingdom now and evermore

CHORUS

Just as He said He would
He has risen now He is alive
Just as He said He would
He'll return with a fire in His eyes
He has broken every chain
Now forever He shall reign
And He's coming again
Just as He said He would

BRIDGE

Come and see where He lay
There's no body in that grave
See the stone's rolled away
Hallelujah!
(x2)

CHORUS

Just as He said He would
He has risen now He is alive
Just as He said He would
He'll return with a fire in His eyes
He has broken every chain
Now forever He shall reign
And He's coming again
Just as He said He would

TAG

He has broken every chain
Now forever He shall reign
And He's coming again
Just as He said He would
Oh He's coming again
Just as He said He would
